

2015 Statistic Data of Persons Placed in Temporary Detention Isolators of the Human Rights Protection and Monitoring Department of the MIA

- Overall – 16416 persons are placed in Temporary Detention Isolators

Including:

Juveniles - 252

with various types of body injuries: 91

before apprehension - 84

upon apprehension - 7

after apprehension - 0

complains against the police – 2

Females - 447

with various types of body injuries: 156

before apprehension - 144

upon apprehension - 11

after apprehension – 0

before apprehension – upon apprehension - 1

complains against the police – 12

Overall:

with various types of body injuries: 5992

before apprehension - 5635

upon apprehension - 243

after apprehension – 52

before apprehension – upon apprehension – 47

before apprehension – after apprehension – 10 upon apprehension – after apprehension – 4 before apprehension – upon apprehension – after apprehension - 1

complains against the police - 225

complains against the police for body injury – 193

- 14592 persons were taken to a court
- 5989 persons were moved to a penitentiary institution

- 7 persons were taken to the Temporary Detention Center of the Migration Department
- 792 persons were released by a judge
- 940 persons were released by an investigation
- 537 persons were released by an apprehender on personal recognizance
- 8151 persons were imposed an administrative punishment
- 998 persons were imposed an administrative custody
- 6247 persons were imposed an administrative fine
- 857 persons received a notice
- 49 persons were imposed other punishment

- 241 persons from 16416 were taken to medical institution